

U.S. ARMY INTELLIGENCE SCHOOL
FORT HOLABIRD, BALTIMORE 19, MARYLAND

24 August 1962

ARMY Declass/Release Instructions On File

Mr. John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia

STATINTL

Dear Mr. McCone:

On behalf of the Staff and Faculty of the U. S. Army Intelligence School, it is a pleasure to express my appreciation for the effective instruction presented by [redacted] at Fort Holabird, on 17 August 1962, to personnel attending the Senior Foreign Officer Intelligence Course.

STATINTL

[redacted] skillfully organized discussion reflected his extensive knowledge in his field and clarified for the students the importance of economic intelligence in relation to the production of strategic intelligence. His evaluation of problems of analysis and selection of economic data was of particular value to the class. The presentation provided an excellent example of the support and cooperation rendered within the U. S. intelligence community in the national interest.

STATINTL

Please convey to [redacted] our gratitude and thank you for providing a substantial contribution to the academic training of our senior foreign officers.

Sincerely,

MATTHEW C. STEWART
Colonel, Infantry
Acting Asst Commandant